

6 November 2020

David Hatfield
Director, Adjudication, Merger & Authorisation Review Division
Australian Competition & Consumer Commission

Dear David,

SUBJECT: ACCC Interim Authorisation dated 7 August 2020 related to application AA1000527-1 granted to Ingham's, Turosi, Hazeldene's, and ACMF (Interim Authorisation)

Weekly report under paragraph 11 of the Interim Authorisation
Date: 06 November 2020

1. Background:

- 1) On 29 October 2020 the ACCC granted the Authorisation.
- 2) Capitalised terms not defined in this report have the meaning given to them in the Authorisation.
- 3) Paragraph 5.13 of the Authorisation provides:

(1) Reporting obligations

The Parties provide a report to the ACCC on a weekly basis (or as otherwise agreed by the ACCC) setting out details of each material decision made by the COVID Working Group (as defined in paragraph 1.5 above) which involves or otherwise relates to the Authorised Conduct. The ACCC will publish the reports subject to the assessment of any confidentiality claim.

(2) Provision of further information

The Parties provide any further information that the ACCC reasonably requests (through a contact person nominated by the Parties) about the Authorised Conduct being engaged in under the authorisation.

2. Weekly Report for the week 29 October – 4 November 2020

One bilateral discussion took place during this reporting period. This discussion resulted in a bilateral commercial arrangement between two Processors, whereby one Processor purchased chicken meat to be used for their own demand.

Yours faithfully,

Dr Vivien Kite Executive Director ACMF Inc
