AUSTRALIAN COMPETITION AND CONSUMER COMMISSION

Competition and Consumer (Gas Market Emergency Price) Order 2022 (Cth)

Price Cap Exemption Granted

Pursuant to subsection 19(1) of the Competition and Consumer (Gas Market Emergency Price) Order 2022 (Cth) (the Order), the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC)¹, has decided to grant Shell Energy Retail Pty Ltd (the Exempted Party) a price cap exemption (the Exemption) from subsection(s) 8(1), 8(2) and 8(3) of the Order.

The Exemption is in force during the period from 3 May 2023 and ceases to be in force at the end of 23 December 2023.

The ACCC has formed the view that it is appropriate to grant this exemption based on the Exempted Party's current circumstances as set out in the documents and materials provided to the ACCC. Should the ACCC become aware of any material change in those circumstances, it may review the Exemption and consider whether it is appropriate that the Exemption should be varied or revoked under section 22(1) of the Order.

A material change in circumstance would include, but is not limited to:

 The Exempted Party acquiring or entering into any agreement to acquire any interest in any regulated gas producer, or otherwise becoming in any way concerned in the production of regulated gas from any facility.

Where used, terms defined in the Order have the same meaning as in the Order.

The Exemption is subject to the following conditions:

1.0 Notification

1.1 The Exempted Party must notify the ACCC in writing of any material change to its circumstances, or material changes to information specified in the Exempted Party's application Further Information Response within 10 business days of the change.

2.0 Gas agreements and trades

- 2.1 The Exempted Party must not enter into any new arrangements, however described, that facilitate supply of gas to the Exempted Party by:
 - 2.1.1 any Shell Upstream gas production companies or any wholly-owned Shell regulated gas producers
 - 2.1.2 Walloons or any affiliates of Walloons; or
 - 2.1.3 Arrow Energy or its subsidiaries.
- 2.2 The Exempted Party must not trade in or enter into any agreements for supply in the Wallumbilla or Moomba Gas Supply Hubs.
- 2.3 The Exempted Party must not coordinate its purchases of regulated gas through the Trading Markets with Walloons or its affiliates or Arrow Energy or its subsidiaries.
- 2.4 The Exempted Party must not enter into any agreements or arrangements, however described, that relate to the price for the purchase or sale of natural gas from the Trading Markets with:

¹ The power to grant an exemption in writing from any or all of subsections 8(1), (2) and (3) of the Order was delegated to the ACCC on 23 December 2022.

- 2.4.1 any Shell Upstream gas production companies or any wholly-owned Shell regulated gas producers
- 2.4.2 Walloons or any affiliates of Walloons excluding agreements or arrangements with Shell Energy Australia Pty Ltd or Powershop Australia Pty Ltd; or
- 2.4.3 Arrow Energy or its subsidiaries.

3.0 Provision of information to monitor compliance with condition 2

- 3.1 The Exempted Party must report to the ACCC the volume and price of any gas to be supplied by the Exempted Party under any gas supply agreement that the Exempted Party enters into during the period in which this Exemption is in force for supply of gas of greater than or equal to 0.5 petajoules (PJ) per annum and where any part of the supply is within the period in which this Exemption is in force, within 10 business days of entering into the agreement.
- 3.2 The Exempted Party must, within 10 business days of the request, provide any information requested by the ACCC in relation to:
 - 3.2.1 the volume of regulated gas supplied by the Exempted Party during the term of this exemption; and
 - 3.2.2 the persons to whom and the terms on which such gas was supplied; and/or
 - 3.2.3 any matter which the ACCC considers might give rise to a material change in circumstances.
- 3.3 The Exempted Party must provide, by the fifth of each month, the following information for all trades in the Wallumbilla and Moomba Gas Supply Hubs, Brisbane, Sydney and Adelaide Short Term Trading Markets, and Victorian Declared Wholesale Gas Market (the Trading Markets):
 - 3.3.1 the name of the Trading Market the trade was facilitated through;
 - 3.3.2 the price paid, per gigajoule, for the contracted gas amount;
 - 3.3.3 the volume of regulated gas, in gigajoule(s), traded by the Exempted Party.

The ACCC has made this decision based on information available at this time, and has had regard to the matters in subsection 19(2) of the Order and the Exempted Party's application, and further information response and additional information response provided, including in relation to the volume of gas produced by the Exempted Party.

Dated 3 May 2023